

NIPPON CHEMIPHAR VIETNAM FACTORY LAUNCHES EXPORTS TO JAPAN

Nippon Chemiphar Co., Ltd. announces today that its subsidiary Nippon Chemiphar Vietnam, which began commercial production of Uralyt[®] and Soleton[®] in November 2018, has launched exports to Japan.

After the Nippon Chemiphar Vietnam factory begins full-scale operation, the Group's annual production capacity will increase to 2.0 billion pills, up from 1.4 billion. This is expected to reduce production costs by about 20–30% compared to manufacturing in Japan.

Overview of Vietnam's factory

Address	No. 76, Dac Lap Avenue, Vietnam Singapore Industria Park, An Phu Ward, Thuan An Town, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam
Property	Approx. 10,000 m ² (1 ha)
Factory	Two stories, approx. 11,000 m ²
Investment amount	US$38 million
Manufacturing capacity	600 million pills per year
Main products	Uralyt [®] , Soleton [®] and generic drugs
Employees	100 local hires (as of December 2018)

For further information contact:

Public Relations Department, Nippon Chemiphar Co., Ltd.

E-mail: ir@chemiphar.co.jp